Representative Kawakami rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, when thieves are ripping off people, they are not worried about how many sacrifices those families had to make. They are not worried about how many hours those families had to work. They are not worried about the ripple effect of how many more sacrifices and how many more hours at work those families have to endure just to get back to where they were before they were victims. Why are we giving so much thought to making it easier for thieves to do what they do, which is put families in harm's way, steal, and create hardship?"

Representative Keohokalole rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support with reservations on SB 569, SD 1, HD 1, a measure relating to theft.

"I agree with the bill's intent to increase the minimum threshold value of stolen property or services for the offense of theft in the second degree from $300 to $750. This threshold has not been adjusted in 30 years, and the increase will align Hawaii with other jurisdictions across the nation as well as more appropriately place the offense within context of other crimes and their commensurate punishments.

"However, I do have concerns about the 2% automatic annual increase of the threshold amount. I worry that the annual adjustment will increase the penalty threshold beyond a reasonable amount necessary to deter the crime of theft. In continuing to raise the threshold automatically, we potentially risk diminishing the consequences of the crime and in so doing, risk protecting the public and its safety."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, opposition, brief comments. Mr. Speaker, this is the shoplifter's dream card. It allows the CPI to keep every year 2% increase the amount of goods that they can steal. Why do we want to do this? I would ask anyone who knows exactly other than, well I think it says that it's going to take a threshold, which means that it would be less crowding of the courts.

"Mr. Speaker, well the ideal is to get rid of theft rather than encourage it and put an inflation. I mean there's some people who are on fixed incomes who would love to see a CPI for their pensions and CPI for other sources, but we're doing it here to benefit what otherwise is illegal behavior. I just don't get the logic and what we're intending to do and what the unintended consequences are of this if it perpetually gets 2% per year. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I'll just say that first of all, there's a separate statute that deals with shoplifting that this bill doesn't affect. We did check with the Honolulu Prosecutor's Office about how they charge shoplifting, and they said that they either use the shoplifting statute or they use the theft in the 4th degree, which this bill also does not affect.

"But the deeper question is, does it make sense to put somebody in jail for usually if you get a class C, a class C felony has a maximum of five years. Usually they don't get five years, it's usually more like a year and a half or two. But for each year of incarceration, it cost tens of thousands of dollars. I don't have the number off the top of my head, but at a minimum it's $30,000. So currently if you steal $301 worth of stuff, society will pay approximately at a minimum $45,000 to keep that person incarcerated.

"So there is a balancing act here, and that's what we're trying to achieve, but no adjustment has been made since 1986. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would therefore, if I was in the amendment mood, I'd say let's lift it to $1,000 and we could save $4.5 million every year if we just raised it to where no one would get prosecuted. If the intent is to save money or to keep society as a rule of law, if you will, I think we're mixing the savings of money with actually protecting of vendors as well as the public from theft. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I think it's not a good policy. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. It's still illegal to steal less than that amount, it's just not a felony, it's a misdemeanor, which can still put you in jail. I'm not arguing that this unclogs the court system at all, it won't, because people will still be charged. It's just whether it's worth $45,000 or $30,000 a year to keep someone in prison for stealing $301. Like I said, it is a balance and people will differ on where that balance should be. But there are serious considerations here. Thanks."

Representative Tupola rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I think also on a different note is that it's also there's a sliding scale, so it's going to increase for inflation, I guess. So the ability to implement this for the HPD is going to get harder and harder because every year it's going to change if the threshold will change. So there's other concerns beside just the ones presented. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 569, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THEFT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 31 ayes to 15 noes, with Representatives Johanson and Keohokalole voting aye with reservations, with Representatives Aquino, Choy, Cullen, DeCoite, Fukumoto Chang, Har, Kawakami, Kong, Matsumoto, McDermott, Pouha, Thielen, Tupola,

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Thielen: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. We had a wonderful morning out in Waimanalo today at a very historic event, the hemp seed was planted. Attending the event and speaking at the event were the Senate Agriculture Chair, Senator Ruderman, the Agriculture Vice Chair, Senator Riviere, the Energy and Environment Chair, Senator Gabbard, the Water and Land Chair, Senator Laura Thielen, and from our House we also had Representative DeCoite, Representative Creagan, Representative Lee, the staff from Representative Oshiro's office, and myself. The Dean of Tropical Agriculture, Maria Gallow, spoke, as did the principal investigator, Dr. Harry Ako.

"If you turn on your TV tonight I think you will see some of the coverage, but I just want to explain to you how exciting and important that was to have hemp seed be placed in the soil in Hawaii. It's economic development for our state. It's a beginning, and I think that we all will be proud that we were a part of that with the legislation we passed last year to make this possible. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

"And one last reminder, two weeks from today is our traditional Hemp Aloha Friday. For those that might live on the neighbor islands, if you bring your shirts back, and if you don't have a hemp shirt if you just wear a natural fiber shirt, Vice Chair of Finance, natural fiber. Thank you. And we will celebrate two weeks from this Friday. But all of you, it was a wonderful event. It couldn't have happened without the legislation that the federal government passed, the 2014 Farm Act, and the legislation that this Legislature passed last year. So today, we planted a seed. Thank you."

Vice Speaker Mizuno: "Members, can we commend Representative Thielen for all her work. She's been doing this for years and I wanted to show our appreciation. Thank you for the announcement, Representative. Thank you, the fruits of your labors are now being shown."

Representative Matsumoto: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to thank everybody who has donated Easter baskets. We just got it back from IHS, there were 161 baskets this year, which was just a huge accomplishment. Secondly, I'd also like to announce that Capitol Idol is coming up again. It's on Monday, April 20th from 5:00 to 7:00 in the auditorium, and the House needs four acts. So if you can either contact me or my office. That will be happening. So, thank you very much."
